Specifically, LCvR 2241 provides as follows:

1. The Answer.

a. When required. Upon undertaking preliminary review of the motion for relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2241, if the Court finds that there is no basis for dismissal, the Court must enter an order directing the respondent to file an Answer within the time frame permitted by the Court. The respondent is not required to file a Response to the petition unless a Judge so orders. An extension may be granted only for good cause shown.

b. Contents. The Response must address the allegations in the petition. All relevant documents should be attached to the Response as exhibits. In addition, the Response must state whether any claim in the petition is barred by a failure to exhaust administrative remedies, a procedural bar, or non-retroactivity.

2. The Reply. Although not required, the petitioner may file a Reply (also known as "a Traverse") within 30 days of the date the respondent files its Response. If the petitioner wishes to file a Reply after 30 days have passed, he or she must file a motion requesting to do so and an extension may be granted only for good cause shown.

A Filing User shall submit as exhibits or attachments only those excerpts of the referenced documents that are directly germane to the matter under consideration by the court. Excerpted material must be clearly and prominently identified as such. Filing Users who file excerpts of documents as exhibits or attachments under this rule do so without prejudice to their right to timely file additional excerpts or the complete document. Responding parties may timely file additional excerpts or the complete document that they believe are/is directly germane.

In accordance with our Local Rules and our Electronic Case Filing Policies, Respondents are required to electronically file all exhibits that are required to be filed in their Answer. Respondents' noncompliance with the above authorities may result in sanctions.

Any party who is not a registered user of the court's ECF System is entitled to receive a paper copy of any pleading or other document from the party making such filing.
